Takemusu Aikido Association Fukushidoin Certification Course

Objective

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will have acquired the essential knowledge and information and core minimum skills to become effective assistant-instructors of Aikido. Note that in addition to completion of this course, there are training and teaching experience requirements to complete the TAA Fukushidoin certification.

Pre-requisites

1. Aikido Yudansha with relevant experience.
2. Knowledge of basic information about Aikido and the TAA.
3. Proficiency in basic taijutsu and bukiwaza.

Target

This course focuses on the needs of an assistant-instructor who has some light teaching responsibility in a dojo, under the supervision of a Chief Instructor.

Format

The course includes a combination of 10 hours of mat work and 2 hours of lecture/discussion. Students' interaction with the instructor is encouraged.

Mat work includes:

- Identify and work on physical and energetic components of each technique
- Explore strengths and weaknesses of each technique
- Work on best way to present techniques to facilitate assimilation

Each student will be provided with a binder containing essential information that can be used for note-taking.

Satisfactory Completion

A student must attend and actively participate in all classes to complete the course satisfactorily. Upon satisfactory completion the Course Instructor will sign off the relevant sections on the TAA Fukushidoin Application and Checklist.
